

Department of Veterans Affairs

Memorandum

Date: 10/28/2016

From: ACOS/Research and Development Committee (151)

Subj: New VA Study Approval – 16-H196 – Title: Advanced wasting and stability of creatinine excretion in peritoneal dialysis patients

To: Yijuan Sun MD

IACUC Approval:

IBC Review:

NMVA IRB Apprv: 09/08/2016 SRSBS Approval: 09/01/2016

VA CIRB Approval:

1. Following approval by all relevant committees, subcommittees, or other entities, the Research and Development Committee (R&DC) gave full approval of your study titled: Advanced wasting and stability of creatinine excretion in peritoneal dialysis patients. This is the required formal notification that this project may be initiated.

R&DC Approval Date: October 27, 2016

2. You are required to maintain a regulatory binder, furnished by the Research office, for the duration of your study. Please contact the Research Office and make an appointment to receive your binder prior to commencing work on your study.

3. Any changes to this study including protocol updates amendments or revisions to the privacy and/or security checklists must be submitted to the appropriate subcommittee(s) for review and approval prior to implementation.

4. Additionally, yearly training is the responsibility of the PI and study staff; please forward or fax a copy of completed training certificates to the Research Office, fax number 256-2877. For training information or questions, please contact Gaylene Vargas at extension 4257 or ABQVAResearch@Va.gov.

5. If you have any questions, you may contact Sandra Diesel, R&DC Coordinator, extension 2235 or Terry Lesley, Chief/Research Admin., extension 5372. They may also be reached via email: ABQVAResearch@Va.gov.

George R. URL, M.D., PhD FANA, FACNP
ACOS/R
Raymond G. Murphy VA Medical Center