

INFORMED CONSENT STATEMENT:

Singhealth Centralised Institutional Review Board has approved waiver of informed consent based on ethical considerations, that the study involved only a retrospective review of medical records, did not require any additional visit, procedure or intervention for study patients, involved minimal risk to study patients, and no risk of breach in patient confidentiality as all data were anonymized with no patient identifier.