

Informed consent statement:

Informed consent was not required from the patients for the study as the analysis used anonymous clinical data. Individuals cannot be identified based on the data presented.