targets and patient monitoring are discussed. Well-written systematic review. General comments: i) This is an interesting and informative manuscript. ii) Greater attention to syntax and grammar (e.g, making sure sentences are complete) would strengthen the manuscript. iii) For all cited studies (results of review discussed in the text), please include the study design, sample size and demographic where relevant, and key findings to enable readers to understand level of evidence of the observation(s).

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

I read your nice narrative review. I have few suggestion as below: 1. Introduction section is very lengthy. It's better to make it more brief. 2. There is no data on the time of drug session in CD or UC which is a debateful area. 3. I recommend adding a table
