World Journal of Gastrointestinal Endoscopy

Thank you for your comment about our manuscript entitled “Anesthetic management and associated complications of peroral endoscopic myotomy: a case series” .

On behalf of my co-authors, I am re-submitting the enclosed manuscript for publication in World Journal of Gastrointestinal Endoscopy.

According to your suggestions, we corrected our manuscript. In methodology, we described in detail about factors we examined in this study.

This manuscript has not been published and is not under consideration for publication elsewhere. All the authors have read the final version of manuscript and have approved this re-submission.

Sincerely

Takuya Yoshida (on behalf of co-authors)

Department of Anesthesiology, Kobe University Hospital.
