Dear Editor,

The author of the manuscript “Critical Values in Pediatrics: The crucial role of Diagnostics in Children's Hospitals” is a native English speaker. The author went to a British College in the primary school, worked in the United Kingdom in 2002-2004, and currently works in Canada since 2008.

Herewith, I respectfully request to have the Language Certificate requirement waived.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at sergi@ualberta.ca or biotechlab@gmail.com by email or at (780) 407-7951.

Yours sincerely,

Consolato Sergi
