Dear Editor,

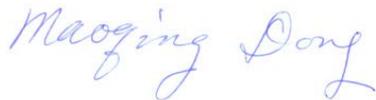

I am writing to confirm that I have proofread and edited the article entitled "Schwannoma originating from recurrent laryngeal nerve in a thyroid cancer patient" submitted by Xiequn Xu and his colleagues for the potential publication in your esteemed journal.

I, as a native English-speaking academic researcher, declare that the concerned manuscript has been edited for proper English language, grammar, punctuation, spelling (American style), and overall style by myself.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any further questions.

Best regards,

Maoqing Dong
