

Biostatistics statement

Title: An optimized protocol of multiple post-processing techniques improves the diagnostic accuracy of multidetector computed tomography in assessment of small bowel obstruction compared with conventional axial and coronal reformations
MS Number: 44959

The statistical methods of this study were reviewed by a statistician from the Statistics Department at the Army Medical University.

Name: Wen-chang Wang

Signature:

Contact information: Email: dpwanglu@live.com