

To

whoever it may concern
Santa rosa clinic.

I have given my consent for diagnosis, treatment of my condition and the photograph was taken with my consent. I understand that my medical information without my name and identifying information could be used for medical research.

Regards

A large black rectangular redaction box covers the signature area. A small blue mark is visible to the right of the box.