CONFIRMATION OF LANGUAGE PROOFREADING

RE: “Laparoscopic appendectomy for elemental mercury sequestration in the appendix: A case report”

I hereby affirm that i have diligently proofread and extensively corrected the language content of the article under reference above. I am a native English speaker with substantial experience in research editing, and it is my objective consideration that the language content of the manuscript in its current form has reached Grade A, and meets the standard quality requirements of academic publishing.

I make these declarations freely, responsibly and upon my honor, and urge you to accord the article due consideration in this regard.

Sincerely,

Dr. Ugwoke, Chiedozi Kenneth
