Reply to reviewers:

1. In perspective session, the authors should describe how to apply these analytical methods in clinical diagnosis with colonoscopy and/or stool blood test. Or the authors should show a possibility of novel therapy

We appreciated for reviewer's valuable advice. Taken reviewer's comments into consideration, we revised the prospect section and added relative text such as our opinion about how to apply the DNA methylation screening in clinical diagnosis with colonoscopy and/or stool blood test.

Thank you very much for your kind reconsiderations.

Sincerely yours,

Guanghua Luo
