

Ethical Approval

Study Title : measurment of shoulder gradient in patients with rupture of rotator cuff and have shoulder pain

Project Number: IR.IUMS.FMD.REC 1396.9423715006

Principal Investigator: Amir Sobhani Araghi

Approval Date : 2018/02/27

The Research Ethics Committee of Iran University of Medical Sciences has approved the project in accordance with the tenets of the Helsinki Declaration and the national ethical guideline for medical research. Approval is granted on the conditions outlined below.

- Approval is given for three years. Projects, which have not commenced within two years of original approval, must be re-submitted to the Ethics Committee.
- Prior approval from the Research Ethics Committee is required before implementing any changes in the consent documents or any changes in the protocol unless those changes are required urgently for the safety of subjects.
- You must complete and return the final report form when your research is completed.

Motevalian

Dr. Seyed Abbas Motevalian
Vice Chancellor for Research and Technology