To whom it may concern:

Manuscript # 51643, titled, "Title: Neuropathy Experienced by Colorectal Cancer Patients Receiving Oxaliplatin: A Qualitative Study to Validate the Functional Assessment of Cancer Therapy/Gynecologic Oncology Group-Neurotoxicity (FACT/GOG-Ntx) Scale", does not include statistical analyses. This manuscript solely utilizes qualitative methods of analysis. I have reviewed this methods and in my opinion the methods and techniques mentioned are appropriate for this research.

Sincerely,
