Dear colleagues Hallo, I hope you are fine. Manuscript titled " Pulmonary Tumor Thrombotic Microangiopathy of Hepatocellular Carcinoma: Case Report and Review of Literature" by Shinichi Moritaet al. - The authors have reported the minute clinical and pathological information of their recent case and reviewed literatures of reported cases. The manuscript was well, concisely and coherently organized. Also, The figures are good but I prefer to add to histopathological slides high power of the alveolar damage . I recommend to accept this article. .

Pulmonary tumor thrombotic microangiopathy (PTTM) is a rare condition in patients with hepatocellular carcinoma (HCC); to date, few cases have been reported. In this paper, they reported the clinical and pathological information of their recent case and reviewed literatures of reported cases to date. It is very interesting and I accept the existing versions.
