

Journal: World Journal of Gastroenterology

Manuscript title: The Subtle Skills: Using OSCEs to Assess Gastroenterology Fellow
Performance in System Based Practice Milestones

Within our institution, education performance improvement is considered quality improvement and does not meet criteria for human subjects research. Therefore IRB approval was not required and informed consent form was also not required. Participation by each fellowship was voluntary.