SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The article is good in terms of scientific content, but the article has to undergo major changes in the structure of the introduction, method and material, and ultimately, the discussion.

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Potentially instructive case. Please provide magnified picture of lipidic adenocarcinoma and discuss about possible differential diagnosis such as adenoma (ciliated muconodular pulmonary tumors). Provide the details of the past history of lung cancer (location and histology) Provide the years of publication of reference 2 and 3. Probably Watanabe Y (Yukio is usually a first name)

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Dear editor and authors, The authors presented a rare case of lung adenocarcinoma with gradual enlargement of a thin-walled cavity surrounded by pure ground glass opacity (GGO), which is worth publishing after addressing the following minor concerns:

In the section of "History of present illness", A precious chest CT in 2007..., I believe you mean "previous". Please verify your intended meaning. Thorough check of typo errors and English Editing throughout the whole text is recommended, although the authors provided the certificate for English Editing. The patient underwent video-assisted thoracoscopic wedge resection for the tumor. Intraoperative photographs are encouraged to be presented to show the cystic nature of the tumor, which would be appreciated to the general readers. Description of Figure 2 in the legend should emphasize more on the serial change of the cyst over time. A fatter, larger, and more obvious arrow to show the cyst is highly recommended.
