

Non-Native Speakers of English Editing Certificate

Name of Journal: World Journal of Clinical Cases

Manuscript NO: 54183

Title: Portal hypertension in a case with biliary hamartomas

Authors List: Qianqian Li, Xiaozhong Guo, Hongyu Li, Xingshun Qi

The corresponding authors are very experienced at English-language writing and editing in medical scientific publishing. Dr. Xingshun Qi has published nearly 200 English-language papers in SCIE journals as the first or corresponding authors. More importantly, Dr. Xingshun Qi has volunteered to conduct free peer reviews of papers submitted to the Baishideng journals for 91 times, which can be confirmed on your peer-review system. So we are confident at the quality of English language. Additionally, we have to acknowledge that we do not have any funding for editing the language of a case report. Please understand our current financial status.
