SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The review article entitled as 'Role of lncRNA-mediated ceRNA regulatory network in hepatocellular carcinoma', has been submitted for review. The following comments are made after critical evaluation of review article. The authors have discussed regulation of ceRNA network in cell. Initially, brief introduction about the mechanism of mRNA regulation by lncRNA-miRNA has been mentioned. The highlight of the article is comprehensive information on dysregulated lncRNA in HCC. The group has nicely compiled the literature on role of lncRNA involved in major factors affected in liver carcinogenesis. Further, few lncRNA networks and their role in cellular pathways has been address. Lastly, all the information has been tabulated for better understanding. Overall, this review can be beneficial to research community. Hence, editor may accept the article.
