SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Very timing and excellent report, but I am missing the differences between the different States (e.g., West and East, MidWest, farmlands, etc.). The report should contain this information for a good presentation of the topic.

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This manuscript is well written about timely topic. It was quite interesting except protocol-like description. It would be better to classify by age and to describe how to deal infants, toddlers, and school aged children, respectively.

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Thank you for the opportunity to review this text. To my opinion, the article is well-written and interesting but I think still needs minor revisions before publishing. You must provide more details about changes in your activity. Everyday we discover new articles and data on this pandemic. Therefore, please update also data on pediatric cases and cite most recent works.
