Rectoseminal vesicle fistula after radical operation for rectal cancer: Report of 4 cases and literature review

Xia ZX et al. 4 Cases of rectoseminal vesicle fistula

Zhi-Xiu Xia, Jin-Chun Cong, Hong Zhang

Abstract

BACKGROUND

Rectoseminal vesicle fistula (RSVF) is an complication mainly due to anastomotic leakage (AL) after anterior or low anterior proctectomy of rectal cancer. The occurrence of RSVF is extremely uncommon; hence, limited literature documenting this rare complication is available. The aim of this literature review is to investigate the etiology.
