

Dear researchers from Editorial Office

We want to thank for your carefully examination of this work. We have incorporated the editorial recommendations into the text and we also have included two tables and a figure for better reading.

First of all, we want to thank Reviewer#2

We appreciate very much your assessment of our efforts in reviewing this article and considering it well written and timely on an important topic.

We thank also to Reviewer#1

We really appreciate your agreement the implication of eHealth under real-world clinical conditions, in our case focusing on radiation oncology and telemedicine best practices.

Also your comments give us an opportunity to improve the manuscript.

Now the topics COVID-19 and SARS-CoV-2 are mentioned at the beginning of the introduction and abstract.

“Make the conclusion a different section with a subheading” Now there is a conclusion as a subheading.

We want to sincerely thanks to both editor and reviewers, we think that now this paper is much more comprehensive.

Yours sincerely,

Castalia Fernández , M.D.
