

Dear editor,

Thank you very much for reading my manuscript and for your valuable advice. I revised the following contents in the manuscript: (1) I provided the author contributions and (2) I provided the application process of ARTIFICIAL intelligence in pancreatic cancer diagnosis and treatment, as well as the advantages and disadvantages of robotic surgery compared with traditional surgery and laparoscopic surgery.(3) The font of the manuscript has been modified to 12 pt Book Antiqua.(4) I revised the format of the author's name.(5)I provided the authors' ORCID Numbers. (6)I provided a conflict-of-interest statement.(7)We provided tables and pictures.

Best regards,

Hai-min Lin
