Certificate for Proofreading and Editing Services Undertaken

13th September 2020

Authors:

Aleksandra Glapa-Nowak et al.

This document certifies that the manuscript titled "Apolipoprotein E variants correlate with the clinical presentation of paediatric inflammatory bowel disease – a cross-sectional study" was proofread and edited by Proofreading Service UK.

The editor aimed to ensure that the author's intended meaning was not altered during the review.

All of the suggested amendments were tracked with the Microsoft Word "Track Changes" feature. Therefore, the author had the option to reject or accept each change individually.

Kind regards,

Proofreading Service UK
