We highly appreciate the precise assessment and feedback of the reviewer and completely agree with the content related suggestions for improvement. Now we discussed in more detail if the vaccination approach against H. pylori should continue in future with respect to new and novel ideas. We also included in the mouse model section an update on new concepts regarding antigens and adjuvants recently investigated in H. pylori vaccination experiments. These results are included in the consequences section in consideration of pre-clinical and clinical development. We did not incorporate tables as suggested. In this review we just want to highlight the most important developments from our point of view. The cited and described scientific work gives an overview on strategies for vaccination and do not contain every single study conducted. We also performed language polishing as suggested.

3 References and typesetting were corrected

Thank you again for publishing our manuscript in the World Journal of Gastroenterology.

Sincerely yours,
