SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

In this retrospective study, the authors analyzed the data of 10 patients surgically treated for gastrointestinal involvement of Behcet`s disease (GIBD) and 106 patients surgically treated for Crohn`s disease (CD) to identify notable clinical features and effective postoperative treatment for surgical patients with GIBD. It is a novel idea with obvious aim. the study is sufficient to reach the aim, written in a clear understandable language with logic conclusion. There are few corrections mentioned in the reviewed manuscript.
