The role of exosomes in the diagnosis and treatment of colorectal cancer

Dear Editor:

Thank you for allowing me to submit a revised draft of my manuscript titled The role of exosomes in the diagnosis and treatment of colorectal cancer(Manuscript NO: 62860) to World Journal of Clinical Cases. I appreciate the time and effort that you and the reviewers have dedicated to providing your valuable feedback on my manuscript. I am grateful to the reviewers for their insightful comments on our paper. I have been able to incorporate changes to reflect most of the suggestions provided by the reviewers. I have highlighted the changes within the manuscript.

Here is a point-by-point response to the reviewers' comments and concerns.

Reviewer 2

Comment 1: I would suggest to cite one or two most significant (preferably clinical or translational) studies with most impressive results for each section more detailed

We agree with this and have incorporated your suggestion throughout the manuscript. We tried to cite the most significant studies with more details. The changes are on page 7, 8, 9,10,11,12,13,15,16, and the changes concerning this comment are marked by blue colour.

Comment 2: I find the article to long

Thank you for pointing this out. We agree with this. Therefore, we have tried to shorten the Article.
