SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Strongly advise the authors to use a skilled English language editor. Section on B and T cells is very unclear and not understandable. This greatly diminishes the scientific value of the information.

all my comments are in the reviewed file. I believe that the new title i suggested might be more suitable but it is up to the authors and the journal editor to decide. I am fine with either. similarly, I rephrased the conclusion but again have a look and feel free to work on it. I believe the conclusion needs to be more exciting.
