DECLARATION

To whom it may concern,

Pharmaceutical Medicine Academy (PMA) provided comprehensive editing services for the manuscript “Long-term response to avelumab and management of oligoprogression in Merkel cell carcinoma: a case report”, which is now being submitted to World Journal of Clinical Cases. The manuscript was written, revised and edited concerning grammar, spelling, punctuation and style according to the principles of Good Medical Writing.

PMA provides medical writing services, since 2017, supported by Senior Medical Writers with training from the European Medical Writers Association.
