Round 1

Dear Editors and Reviewers:

Thank you very much for your comments regarding our manuscript. We have carefully revised the manuscripts per your suggestion.

Reviewer #1: Please add and discuss the following references: 1. Koji Imoto et al. Clinical Features of Liver Injury Induced by Immune Checkpoint Inhibitors in Japanese Patients Volume 2019 | Article ID 6391712 | <https://doi.org/10.1155/2019/6391712> 2. Joseph J Jennings et al. A: We added "In a study of 387 patients from Japan who underwent ICI treatment, 56 developed CRH, 11 (19.6%) of the hepatocellular type and 34 (60.7%) of the cholestatic or mixed-type, with cholestasis predominating. Liver biopsy is helpful in diagnosing and evaluating the severity of hepatitis and guiding individualized treatment, which is necessary in complex, severe, and refractory cases." in Page 9 Line 4.(1. And “In general, severe liver injuries caused by ICIs are rare. Most liver injuries of grades 3–4 or higher are sensitive to corticosteroid therapy, while mild liver injuries can be relieved without corticosteroid therapy”in Page 10,Line 20 (Joseph J Jennings et al.
