Response:

Thank you for your approval, especially for your kind comments.

EDITORIAL OFFICE'S COMMENTS:

Response:

1. According to the editor's suggestion, we have upload Conflict-of-Interest Disclosure Form.
2. According to the editor's suggestion, we have provided the PubMed numbers and DOI citation numbers to the references.
3. According to the editor's suggestion, we have added catheter implantation time, and catheter rupture does not occur immediately after implantation (CASE PRESENTATION section, line 8-9, page 4).
4. According to the editor's suggestion, we consider changing the title of the manuscript to "Removal of "ruptured" pulmonary artery infusion port catheter by pigtail catheter combined with gooseneck trap: a case report".
5. According to the editor's suggestion, we have added 3 references in recent years (References 4, 8, 9).

6. According to the editor's suggestion, we have adopted a unified representation for figures showing the same or similar contents (Figure section, line 11, page 8; line2 page 9).

We have tried our best to revise our manuscript according to the comments. Attached please find the revised version, which we would like to submit for your kind consideration.

We would like to express our great appreciation to you for comments on our paper. Looking forward to hearing from you.

Thank you and best regards.

Yours sincerely,

Gui-Qin Chen
