SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

An excellent paper concerning pathophysiology and treatment of HRS COMMENTS The effect of albumin is discussed to be not only a volume effect, but albumin may have antiinflammatory and immunomodulatory affects because of albumin dysfunction in cirrhotic patients. The authors should comment on this There is a paper recently published in the NEJM March 5 2021abours a phase 3 trial to confirm the efficacy and safety of terlipressin and albumin in adults with HRS-1 This import study should be mentioned Literature 43 reports the effect of terlipressin in patients with non HRS AKI, this should be mentioned
