SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

In case of nutritional risk, perioperative nutrition therapy should be started without delay and should follow recent guideline recommendations (ESPEN). Please bring a short comment/text/paragraph on this topic. In order to assess metabolic recovery and the prognosis for long-term survival, C-reactive protein/albumin ratio may be a promising parameter. Please comment C-reactive protein/albumin ratio (CAR). The aim of this review is influence of nutritional status in post-operative period. Can you comment Bile Acid Malabsorption in ilea resection Crohn's disease and the effect of the nutritional status - recommendations for diagnostic/treatment options etc. please consider or address this statements; Metabolic control, e.g. of blood glucose perioperative? Reduction of factors that exacerbate stress-related catabolism or impair gastrointestinal function; Minimization of the time on paralytic agents for ventilator management in the postoperative period; Early mobilization to facilitate protein synthesis and muscle function. Subjective Global Assessment C or NRS \geq Preoperative serum albumin <30 g/L (with no evidence of hepatic or renal dysfunction)? with low C-reactive protein/albumin ratio (CAR) (≤ 0.038) and those with high CAR (>0.038 ; $p < 0.001$) Indications for parenteral nutrition? SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

This paper provides several risk factors and generally discussed (summarized) the related evidence. As a narrative review, it doesn't put new insights (knowledge) into this area. Moreover, the topic of IBD doesn't really fit the scope of the journal either.
