SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

No comments

Response: Thank you very much for positive feedback towards our submitted manuscript. Based on your comment, we have re-edited the English language thoroughly. These corrections included syntax/grammar corrections, wording corrections, and displacement of some confusing, unclear statements. We spelled out the full name at their first mention for some acronyms. We also added essential description within the text when it is necessary. For example, in Figure 1 and 2 legends, we added one more sentence explaining the black texts in each item in the respective legend. We also added some more recent literatures for some places that are missing citations. All these corrections were marked in red texts. Hopefully our revision will meet with your approval. Thank you again.
