SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The paper is well written, with a good argument and structure. Maybe the title should be accommodated as 'case series', rather than three case reports... When you have three patients, it is already a case series. Very few grammatical issues (for example pread... instead of spread); the language is throughout exquisite. Images embedded in the word document are small and of low resolution. I hope very much that you have submitted in the online platform, or possess and submit thereafter, images of high resolution.
