Dear Editor-in-Chief,

We would like to re-submit our manuscript (ID: 64867) entitled «Differences and similarities between MSC and EPC immunoregulatory properties against T cells» as a review article after an invitation (BPG invitation) from the World Journal of Stem Cells that we have received on 10/11/2020 with the following ID: 04738361.

We would like to inform you that after revision, our manuscript has been verified by a fluent English expert for further language polishing.

Regards
Dr. Sina NASERIAN,
