Comment: Interesting manuscript that aimed to review the anti-inflammatory and immunomodulatory potential of omega-3 long-chain polyunsaturated fatty acids (ω -3 LCPUFA) and its plausible therapeutic as a pharmaconutrition intervention strategy in a management of inflammatory cytokine storm associated with COVID-19, with special reference to NAFLD. Manuscript is with a new subject and well writing. Missing some metabolic pathways of cytokines storm, one of the important manuscript subject.

Response: Metabolic pathway involved in the cytokine storm is included in the revised version.
