Thank you for submitting this valuable case report. The results look true and authentic. The hypothesis is validated. Place the corresponding letter (a, b, c, etc.) directly within each panel of the figures. Need to define this abbreviation  $^{99m}\text{Tc}$ . Added information in tables or imagines are very helpful and necessary for better understanding. The bibliography is chosen and presented correctly. The language in this article is correct and needs some proofreading. This case report represents an effective and very beneficial treatment option for extra-hepatic bile duct injury
