I certify that

I have excellent fluency both in written and spoken English. I have achieved a wide experience in scientific editing being the co-author of several international scientific publications. I am therefore an expert in scientific editing.

I edited the manuscript n 65274 ("Surveillance for Hepatocellular Carcinoma at the Community Level: easier said than done" by P. del Poggio et al), which is under consideration for publication in your journal. I edited the manuscript in order to improve the level of English language as required. Should you need any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me by e-mail (m\_88\_f@libero.it)

Best Regards,

Dr.Francesca Martini
