

Institutional review board statement

This study used publicly available database without utilizing identifiable health information, therefore involvement of institutional review board was not required to conduct this study.

Tomoki Sempokuya, MD

Corresponding author