

Thank you all for your input on our Minireview, manuscript number 65778, titled EndoHepatology: An Emerging Field. Please find along with the submission document, a file attached that has the requested revisions.

1 - Author contributions have been added

2 - There are no figures or tables for this review. We attempted to create our own illustrations, however, none of these were in a quality that was satisfactory for publication.

3 - PMID and DOI numbers have been added to all references. There are two (one video case, and one supplemental document) which were cited that did not have PMID numbers associated.

4 - Minireviews has been added

We welcome any feedback you have regarding this revision submission, and appreciate your time and consideration.
