Non-Native Speakers of English Editing Certificate

I declare that the manuscript titled "Optimization of transdisciplinary management of elderly with Femur Proximal Extremity Fracture: a patient-tailored plan from orthopedics to rehabilitation" has been reviewed by a native English speaker.

Prof. Massimiliano Leigheb MD, PhD
