Dear Professor Lian-Sheng Ma,

I would like to express my deep gratitude to you and the reviewers for your interest in the manuscript "Issues of origin, morphology and clinical significance of tumor microvessels in gastric cancer"

I was very pleased to accept your offer to write a review article and it was very interesting to work on it.

I have carefully revised the manuscript in accordance with the "Guidelines for revising the content".

I also have added a section "Highlights of the article" at the end of the main text of the manuscript.

With respect and gratitude, Marina A Senchukova (ID 03270609), MD, PhD,
