

Response to Editors

The authors would like to express their gratitude to the editors and the reviewers of our manuscript for reviewing our manuscript and providing conditional acceptance. We have revised the manuscript according to your recommendations and uploaded the revised manuscript to the submission portal as recommended.

1. The title has been reduced to 4 words: POCUS in COVID-19 Pandemic
2. The Author's contribution section has been added
3. Original pictures and videos are uploaded in powerpoint format along with the manuscript
4. PMID and DOI have been updated on the references
5. All images and videos are the original work of authors. No images or videos are copyrighted or published elsewhere.
6. Since this review is on point-of-care ultrasound, it is essential for us to have video clips for this online publication. As a result, we have uploaded the video clips in powerpoint format.
