	Company Editor-in-Chief: I have reviewed the Peer-Review
	Report, full text of the manuscript, and the relevant ethics documents, all of which have met the basic publishing requirements
2	of the World Journal of Gastroenterology, and the manuscript is	[Y] conditionally accepted. I have sent the manuscript to the author(s) for its revision according to the Peer-Review Report, Editorial Office's comments and the Criteria for Manuscript Revision by Authors.
3	The fixed headings are copied.	[Y]
	The title concisely summarizes the main topic of the study and is not too long (no more than 18 words). Words such as 'exploration',
4	'research', 'analysis', 'observation', and 'investigation' are avoided.	[Y]
	The title does not start with 'The' and does not include any Arabic numbers or uncommon abbreviations.
5	A short running title is provided (no more than 6 words).	[Y]
	The authors' full family (sur)names and full/abbreviated first
6	names are listed on the title page and are consistent with those	[Y]
	listed in the signed BPG Copyright License Agreement form.
	The 'Author contributions' passage describes the specific contribution(s) made by each author. The author's names are listed 7	in the following format: full family (sur)name followed by abbreviated first and middles names.	f2/ 1
	e.g., "Wang CL and Liang L contributed equally to this work; Wang	[Y]
	CL, Liang L, Fu JF, Zou CC, Hong F and Wu XM designed the Field of Vision, Case Report and Letter to the Editor: Non-structured abstract that is no less than 150 words. Research articles: Structured abstract with subsections for AIM (no more than 20 words); METHODS (no less than 80 words); RESULTS (no less than 120 words); and CONCLUSION (no more than 26	[Y]

	Gastroenterol 2019; In press
	The 'Core tip' provides a summary (less than 100 words) of the 14	study that outlines the most innovative and important arguments	F. 27
14	and core contents of the paper and will serve to effectively attract	[Y] readers.
	The 'INTRODUCTION' section clearly describes the relevant background information for the study. Only the most relevant and current (within the past 5 years) literature is cited, with the exception of rare instances of seminal literature citations. All 15	technical terms and/or abbreviations are explained and/or defined,
	with the full name of abbreviations given upon first appearance in	[V]
	the text and the abbreviation presented in parentheses [i.e.,	[Y]
	"computed tomography (CT)"]. First-person pronouns (e.g., 'I',
	'we') are used appropriately to clearly indicate the work performed by the author(s). When weaknesses of previous studies are described in the text to highlight the innovations related to the current study, the information is presented carefully.

The 'MATERIALS AND METHODS' section clearly and accurately describes all materials and methods used to obtain the data presented in the article and is adequate for a reader to repeat the study. The 'RESULTS' section concisely describes the observational and experimental results. Representative data and data that have scientific significance are emphasized. Data is presented in either the text, a table or figure (i.e., chart, diagram, graph or image), but is not repeated among each. Information presented in the tables and figures clearly describes the trends, meaning, and inferences. Results described in textual form are accurate, concise and clear. Statistical symbols are accurate. Statistical significance is expressed as a *P < 0.05, *P < 0.01 (P > 0.05 usually does not need to be denoted). If there are other series of P values, *P < 0.05 and *P < 0.01 are used, and a third series of P values is expressed as a *P < 0.05 and 'P < 0.01. Statistical data is expressed as mean ± SD or mean ± SE. The 'DISCUSSION' section (1) describes the main purpose and hypothesis of the study; (2) summarizes the most important results; (3) illustrates and explains the results (but does not simply repeat the data) and draws conclusions or inferences based on the results; (4) points out the limitations of the study and their impact on the results, as well as proposes further advice on future research topic(s) or direction(s); and (5) describes the theoretical significance and practical value of the findings. The 'ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS' section expresses gratitude to any individuals or organizations for technical support (i.e., providing instrumentation, equipment or experimental materials, and/or assistance in experimental work), non-technical services (i.e., useful inspiration, suggestions, guidance, or review), and/or any other auxiliary work.

21	The 'ARTICLE HIGHLIGHTS' section provides comments for	[Y]
	original articles in accordance with the specified format.
	The 'REFERENCES' section lists the references in the Vancouver style. This style uses Arabic numeral in-text citations based on the order of the first appearance of a source in the text. For citations where the author's name is indicated in the text, a superscript number should be placed following the name (i.e, "Pang et al"). For citations where no author is indicated, a superscript number should 22	be placed at the end of the sentence. Respective examples are: "Ma[1]	[Y] reported", "Pan et al ^[2-5] indicated"; "PCR has a high sensitivity ^[6,9] ." No superscript numbers are used when the reference number is described in the text; for example, "The experimental method used has been described in reference [8]." The style of reference citations in tables is the same as that in the text (e.g., Pan et al ^[2-5] , please see reference [8]).
	Journal references have been verified to ensure that there are no duplicate references and that the PMID numbers are correct. For references not yet included in PubMed: the name of Chinese journals is spelled out using Chinese Pinyin, with the first letter of 23	each word capitalized (e.g., Shijie Huaren Xiaohua Zazhi); the name of	[Y]
	journals in other languages are listed according to indexing information retrieved from Google. Book references are presented with all the information relevant to the electronic version.
	The number of cited references is appropriate for the article type, as 24	follows:
	Commentary: no less than 50;
	Review: no less than 100;	[Y]
	Article: no less than 30/26;
	Case Report and Letter to the Editor: no less than 1.
