SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The authors should follow the guidelines for writing a case report (CARE Case Report Guidelines) and in accordance to the journal style. The manuscript should be edited by a professional native speaker as it was hardly to understand the content of the manuscript. Typos, errors and grammatical mistakes are profound. Legends under the figures are not appropriate.

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

First, esophageal granular cell tumor (eGCT) is not so rare. This paper does not provide enough findings and clinical implications. In addition, the quality of manuscript including English usage are not reach for publication.
