

Editorial Summary

---

Dear Author,

It has been our pleasure to assist you with the polishing of your manuscript. During editing, some questions and concerns arose. These are listed below.

Queries, suggestions, and/or comments

Lines 178-179	“Despite these potential advantages, morbidity rates related to T-tube presence have been reported to be at a rate of 4% to 16.4% in the laparoscopic era” Please clarify.

We hope that you find these queries useful, and that you are able to resolve these quickly before submitting your edited manuscript to the publication of your choice. Please note that these queries only highlight the major changes made to your paper. Other text changes were made during editing. You will notice these as you review your edited manuscript. When doing so, please be sure to double-check that the intended meaning of your text has been retained. Should you have any questions about any of the items listed above, please do not hesitate to contact us.

In addition, when you are ready to finalize changes in your edited manuscript, you can easily do so by using the track changes tool in Microsoft Word ®. The tool can be found by clicking on Tools–Track Changes–Accept or Reject Changes (for older versions) and View–Toolbars–Reviewing–(Click on) Accept or Reject buttons (for newer versions such as 2002).

Thank you for using our services. We look forward to serving you again.

Kind regards,

Project Coordinator
