

English editing by native speaker

Dear editor

My manuscript was English editing by my friend, Jason Cullen. He is a nurse, native speaker, now he is working in New South Wales, Australia.

Dear Yingyong,

I trust you, Gift, and Peace and Proud are well.

I am now in New South Wales in a town called Armidale where I shall spend a few months working in the local hospital. It's a nice town but quite cold.

I have had a good look through your paper and made some changes, as you will see. Please have a look and let me know if you have any questions.

All the best to you all,

Jason
