SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

The authors make a very pertinent commentary on the manuscript published by Kleb et al. As pointed out by the authors, that study could be enriched by providing a standardized index to estimate the degree of frailty and the presence of comorbidities (such as the Charlston Comorbidity Index), and also by providing the causes of death of patients in the study. On page 3 line 19 there is a typing error (advance age instead of advanced age).

SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

Critical and extensive comments to Kleb's reseach. About frailty and performance status, the authors should be addressed more detail.
