Attention: Editors, World Journal of Gastroenterology

The manuscript “Endoscopic management of intramural spontaneous duodenal hematoma: a case report.” by Valerii et al. has been edited carefully by Dr. Simon Cross. Dr. Cross received his degree in Biochemistry and Biological Chemistry from the University of Nottingham, UK, and his PhD in Chemistry also from the University of Nottingham, UK. He has published 23 articles and book chapters in his native English language and performs English language editing for his colleagues at Molecular Discovery where he is Senior Scientist.

Yours faithfully,

Simon Cross
