SPECIFIC COMMENTS TO AUTHORS

- The manuscript have aim that clearly, authors investigate gastric mucosal precancerous lesions in children. However, the strengthening points why gastric mucosal precancerous lesions must have been investigated so weak and limit. Discussion about variables that are not significant also not yet visible, the authors focus still in significant's variables. It is make the manuscript poor of critical analysis. Please give critical rationale to analyse all results, in the discussion section author can give their perspective and show how critical they are
